Becoming Light Together

BLT is a group that meets together for encouragement and accountability in the weight loss journey. If you feel a little on the heavy-side following the holidays, why not join in on Thursday nights at 6:30 p.m. in Room 100 of the Adult Education Building. Cost is just $10.00 per month and the class is open to women, men, and children over 12, who are interested in losing weight. If you have questions, email Debi Kneblak at dkneblak@yahoo.com or call 541-7815 and leave a message.

Missionary of the Week

Our missionaries this week are Ted and Cathie Perry, church planters in Pinetop, Arizona. They serve under Open Door Baptist Missions. The Perrys have started the Mountain Pines Baptist Church in the White Mountains. Although their church is small, they have numerous opportunities to help and encourage the people in their small town. You can contact the Perrys at tedperry@juno.com.

In the book, Jerry Falwell, His Life and Legacy, Macel Falwell gives us a never-before-told account and behind the scenes look at her husband of forty-nine years. This book shows his gentleness of spirit and courage in public ministries and at home.

Dear Congregation:

This note may look more like a bulletin board, but there is a variety of thoughts on my mind.

- Remember to pray for SRBC member Bill Foster and his family. Last Saturday, Bill was sworn in as the new mayor of the city of St. Petersburg. I had the privilege of giving the invocation at the ceremonies at City Hall.
- We had our first deacons meeting of the new year last Monday night. What a joy to work alongside of such gracious and godly men. The deacons have selected Tom Heath to serve as Chairman for this year, and in turn, he selected Brian Brooks to be Vice Chairman.
- I may sound like a proud grandpa (fancy that!), but guess who is featured in the Winter, 2010, edition of the Shepherds Folder (the official written voice of Shepherds Ministries of Union Grove, Wisconsin)? Our granddaughter Katie! When the magazine came this week, we were surprised and excited to see that our Katie, who has Down syndrome, is the front page story. The 3-page article, complete with 6 photos, was written by my wife, Joy.

An added sidebar: I just received a phone call from Burt Kettinger, who lives in Wheaton, Illinois (Burt is a vocal soloist who does concerts nationwide). He saw the article and called to say how much the story about Katie touched his heart. You see, his son B.J. (now in his early 20's) has Down syndrome. B.J. had two heart surgeries in the first three months of his life and has had many of the same physical struggles as our Katie. He told me that B.J. is a Timothy Award winner in the special needs track of AWANA (our Katie is a Cubbie right now). What a blessing it was to talk to Burt!

In Christ,
Pastor Lancaster
